

so. But as he was so upset, JM found this really difficult. Story time had finished so SEB placed the book in the calm corner and told JM that when he was calm and ready, the book would be waiting for him there. JM did calm himself and took himself to the calm corner to find the book.

Lunchtime. JM has been defiant recently at lunchtime, refusing to go to the playground. JM was given the option of playground with his friends or to sit in the lunch hall. JM chose the lunch hall so he spent the half an hour play time in the hall. ZN then brought him in to class after lunch and chn were settling on the carpet. ZN left JM to help another child, JM ran at ZN and punched her in the back, hurting her. JM then took himself back to the calm corner. SEB joined him. At which point, JM started to take his shoes off and throw them at SEB. SBarrett was called for. She came in and positively handled him down to the sunshine room to calm and talk to JM.
