

2021 11 12 : ref john off school till Monday
please keep on johns file for future reference.

Hello again, johns dad here.

Firstly, I agreed with head teacher that talking to emma directly over the phone for all correspondence regarding john in future, and keeping me out of the loop until such time as I have a query, or am needed for my input, is a wonderful and brilliant idea suggested by the head, and wholeheartedly support. This will help immensely I believe, and want to make this happen.

I did mention at the meeting this morning that I was a little concerned at the rather short notice and assumption of our presence, but can and do acknowledge your concern regarding your working practices.

I am also now over the moon the Complex Communication Needs meeting has now been halted as that was a huge burden and emotional strain on me. I always said my son never needed it. And am now overjoyed that his mum came to the same conclusion of her own free will. Her dad will be overjoyed too.

i will be keeping john off now until Monday 15-11-2021 so as to try and get more out of my gorgeous little boy regarding his naughty behaviour, as well as collect my thoughts on how to help ourselves as well as the school in moving forward to a better working relationship for the future.

I did mention at the meeting today Thursday 11-11-2021 that as nothing has actually changed since the last meeting this this may occur again, and sadly this is what has transpired. Hopefully another day off and weekend with him might help us to make more progress.

So john will return Monday 15-11-2021, along with another letter from me, with options for us all to take into consideration going forward, as well as any questions I may still have. This is my decision, and no third party can blame the school for my action. I johns dad, made this decision!!!

Thank you for doing all you have done so far, and I am going to promise to keep conflicting dialogue to a bare minimum now, and my queries a little more short, direct, and to the point. And I will only ever expect a response if and when you are able to do so, or in an agreed period of time.

God bless you all and hope you have a wonderful weekend. Peace and Blessings be upon you.
Dad.
